

Nosewicz Wins Title 4th Time

---

Special to The Denver Post

---

Ed Nosewicz became the first four-time winner of the Colorado Senior Match Play Championship with a 2 and 1 victory over three-time champion Les Fowler Saturday at Fitzsimons Golf Club.

Nosewicz evened the match on the 14th hole after being 2-down and took the title with pars on Nos. 16 and 17. "The turning point was 14 when he (Fowler) missed a 2½-foot putt," Nosewicz said. "He was playing beautifully, but his putter misbehaved on the last four or five holes."

Fowler, who plays out of Boulder Country Club, missed a six-foot putt for par on No. 16 and two-putted No. 17 after his chip shot hit the pin.

Nosewicz, from Aurora Hills Golf Club, scored his fourth championship in six years of participation. He previously won in 1977, 1978 and 1980. He eliminated 1981 champion Larry Eaton 1-up in Friday's semifinals.

Al Kane defeated Jim Gwinn 2-up for the consolation championship.