

Ft. Collins' Osler tops Robinson 2-up in state junior

Cam Osler of Fort Collins defeated Inverness Golf Club's Paul Robinson 2-up on the final hole to win the Colorado Golf Association's Junior Match Play Championship yesterday at Bear Creek Golf Club.

Osler held a three-hole lead with three to play but let Robinson back into the match after hitting into the water on the 16th and 17th holes. Osler, who will attend Colorado State University, won with a bogey on the par-4 18th hole.

Osler reached the final with a 1-up victory on the first hole of sudden death over Boulder's Mark Troyer.

DATELINE ROCKIES

CGA JUNIOR MATCH PLAY

At Bear Creek Golf Club
Championship flight
Semifinals

Cam Osler def. Mark Troyer 1-up on 19; Paul Robinson def. Brady Meeks 1-up on 19.

Final

Osler def. Robinson

Championship consolation

Jay Osmon def. Tom Richardson 1-up.

Jack Nicklaus flight

Brandon Thompkins def. Kurt Walsh 1-up.

Arnold Palmer flight

Jim Doldge def. Chad Buckridge 1-up on 20.

Ben Hogan flight

B.J. Brady def. Brant Froggatte 4 and 2.

Bobby Jones flight

Aaron Taylor def. Geoff Henson 1-up.