

Hamer-Potter duo takes senior title

John Hamer of Boulder Country Club and Gary Potter of Denver Country Club shot a final-round 75 to win the Colorado Golf Association's senior two-man team championship yesterday at Englewood Golf Course. Hamer and Potter finished the three-day championship at 12-under-par 204.

Larry Anderson of Greeley and Chuck Goudey of Fort Collins finished strong with a final-round 71 to take second, two strokes behind.

Grant Maples of Meridian Golf Club and three-time senior match-play champ Bert Welz finished alone in third three shots off the pace.
