

2022 CGA VOLUNTEER EVENT SELECTION GUIDE

		EXPERIENCE	TYPE OF EVENTS	CGA EVENTS
RULES VOLUNTEERS	BEGINNER	Events for those who are newer to officiating. <hr/> There will be ample rulings needed, which creates many opportunities for experience in low-pressure situations.	Higher Handicap CGA Events Non-CGA Championships Junior Qualifier Events	CGA Niblick, Hickory Single Day CGA Qualifiers One-Day Junior Qualifiers
	INTERMEDIATE	Events for those comfortable and confident with the Rules. <hr/> These highly competitive events require many impactful rulings and help gain experience for the next level.	CGA Individual Championships Elite Junior Events CHSAA Championships	CGA State Championships Junior Championships CHSAA Regionals CHSAA Championships
	ADVANCED	Events for those who have demonstrated ability to apply the Rules in high pressure situations. <hr/> There is a lot on the line at these events—money and national event invitations, which requires high level experience.	Professional Championships USGA Events NCAA Events	Colorado Open Colorado Women’s Open Colorado Senior Open Rocky Mountain Open USGA Single Day Qualifiers NCAA Invitationals